

James L. Murray Memorial Award

This award was established at the Board meeting of April 13, 2018 to honour the memory of Mr. Jim (James) Murray, who passed away suddenly in January 2018. He was an outstanding advocate and long-time member of the local bar. Nominations for this award are reviewed by the Public Service Awards Committee with the following criteria considered:

"Awarded to a member of the TBLA that displays the highest standards of ethics, professionalism, and civility in his/her practice as an advocate."

At the March 27, 2019 AGM the first recipient of this award, Jack Jamieson, was presented with the 2018 award. Mr. Jamieson definitely displays all the highest qualities of professionalism, ethics, and civility in his practice of law and is the perfect first recipient of this award. Mr. James Wilcox, the second recipient of this award, received in his nomination high praise for his exemplary professionalism in his dealings with clients, lawyers and the courts. On March 31, 2021, John W. McDonald was presented with the 2020 award for his outstanding professionalism throughout the years in his law practice. Mr. John Illingworth was the worthy recipient of the 2021 award on March 30, 2022 with his consistently high level of professionalism, civility and ethics in his practice. He is also commended for his willingness to provide sound advice and guidance to younger members of the bar. We extend our hearty congratulations to all nominees and recipients of this award!

2018 – Jack Jamieson, Carrel + Partners

2019 – James Wilcox, Legal Aid Ontario

2020 – John W. McDonald, John W. McDonald Law Office

2021 – John Illingworth, Atwood Labine LLP