

LITIGATION ASSOCIATE
ERYOU Barristers

ERYOU Barristers focusses on insurance defence litigation in Northwestern Ontario, acting primarily for institutional clients, and is looking for a junior associate to join our team to pursue rewarding work opportunities within the area of civil litigation.

The ideal candidate will have three to eight years' litigation experience, and be eager to gain additional experience in the handling of challenging files with a significant amount of autonomy. Excellent writing skills and the ability to work within a team setting will be key to the success of any applicant.

ERYOU Barristers will be hiring someone who is interested in continued learning and career development, who will be provided access to mentoring and guidance in a collegial working environment, and be able to provide excellent client service. Flexible and hybrid work opportunities will be available for the right candidate.

ERYOU Barristers offers a competitive salary commensurate with experience and ability. All applications will be held in strict confidence. Interested candidates are invited to apply by submitting a detailed resume and cover letter to Stephen Wojciechowski at sjw@eryoubarristers.com.
